STUDENTS TO VOTE ON UNIVERSITY SONGS

Twenty-five Scores Turned in Lerner Prize Contest

WILL BALLOT DECEMBER 10

Faculty Committee Will Choose Six Best to Present the Students

The students of the University will have a chance to vote on the official G. W. song at chapel, December 10, when a selection will be made of the best songs turned in to compete for the Lerner prize of $50.

When the contest closed Saturday, December 1, a total of 25 songs had been turned into the president's office.

A committee consisting of Mr. Robert Laurence, Prof. Robert Whitney Bolwell, and Prof. William Northup Morse will decide on the six songs that have the greatest merit.

These songs will be thrown on the screen, in chapel, December 10. The students will be given ballots with numbers on them. After the songs have been sung votes will be cast on the best one. The songs will be numbered, and the name of the winner will be announced as soon as possible.

By this song contest the trustees of the University hope to secure a large number of good songs which may be published in a book of George Washington songs.

Some of the songs were turned in without being set to music. It is possible that they may be set to music at a later date, and the students will have a chance to judge their merits.

LAW FRAT INITIATES PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

Delta Theta Phi Numbers Many Distinguished Members.

In the presence of a deputation of over two hundred delegates from all parts of the country, President Coolidge was presented with an honorary membership in the Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity, at the White House, November 23. The obligation of membership was taken on behalf of the John Adams Senate, Boston University chapter of the fraternity, and was offered to the President by Governor Cox, of Massachusetts, who headed the large deputation from Boston. The national body of the fraternity was represented by the chancellor, William H. Thomas, of Cleveland, and a group of national officers, past-chancellors, and living founders.

Among the prominent alumni who took part in the initiation were Robert Lansing, Elihu Root, Chief Justice Marshall, of Ohio, Newton D. Baker, and others. An invitation was also extended Woodrow Wilson, who became a member in 1919, and to Sir Paul Vinogradoff, Corpus Professor of Jurisprudence at Oxford, who is completing a series of lectures at American law schools and who became a member of the organization at the University of California.

Especially significant has been attached to the action of the President in accepting membership in a professional fraternity, in view of the fact that he has hitherto belonged only to a college social fraternity. Delta Theta Phi is one of the largest organizations of lawyers in the world, counting a membership of over seven thousand, and maintaining fifty-four chapters. The names of the late Chief Justice White and Woodrow Wilson, for whom the local chapters in Washington are named, appear on its rolls.

Thursday's game against the Catholic University, besides being the grand finale of the 1923 football season, was the letter game. Any player who played in that contest will be awarded his letter. The following men played: Allen, Hotel, E. Miller, B. Miller, Clements, Lackey, Goldman, Sawyer, Lamar, Dowd, G. McLain, J. McLain, Laux, Henderson, Fletcher, Loebe, and Ketcham. Letters will also be awarded to Captain Jimmy Ptak and Manager Mickey Ladd. Snooks Leebey will probably receive a letter, also.

TO PLAN RAZZ BERRY

Plans for the publication of the Razz Berry, the satirical sheet of Pi Delta Epsilon, the honorary journalistic fraternity, will be discussed at the next meeting of the society, Thursday, December 6.

HATCHETITES MAKE GOOD SHOWING AGAINST C. U.

Team Fought Hard Against Heavy Odds—Never Gave Up

Lynch & Co. were too much for the Hatchetites in the Thanksgiving Day battle at the Wilson Stadium in which the Catholic University downed George Washington 26 to 0. The score is not a true indication of how hard a battle was really fought. It was really a case of a one-man team, with the one man too good for George Washington. Leave Lynch out of consideration and the Buff and Blue, although they might not have won, would have at least held the Brooklanders to a lower score.

Lynch was directly responsible for all the points scored, since he intercepted two unlucky George Washington passes and converted them into six points and threw the two passes to Garvin, which netted C. U.'s other score. He also kicked two goals after touchdowns.

Sawyer, playing his first season of football, was the outstanding figure for G. W. His aggressive play at end, both offensively and defensively, was a feature of the contest. Dowd, fullback, and Lackey, tackle, also played well for the locals.

The nearest the Quigleyites came to scoring was in the final minutes of the game, when George McLain intercepted a C. U. forward pass near his own goal line and dashed 35 yards before being brought down by Lynch, who was the only man between him and a touchdown.

The locals have no alibis to offer; they were outplayed and outgeneraled but they predict better things for the future. Captain Jimmy Ptak was kept on the side lines with a bad thigh, which has been bothering him all season, and which was aggravated in the Johns Hopkins' game. Lawrence Leebey, who received a broken leg in a game several weeks ago saw the game from a wheel chair.

The present officers are: Leota Soars, president; Manley Peele, vice president; Catharine Hough, secretary; and L. S. Keefauver, treasurer.

The club works for closer companionship among its members and for the promotion of interest in Beaux Arts. Prominent people, well versed in every phase of this work, deliver from time to time, interesting lectures. W. H. Child, of the City Zoning Commission, will address the club on city zoning.

Professor Albert B. Bibb is the guiding spirit so far as the faculty is concerned, and we can assure you that "All's Well."

GRAHAM FLY TO REPRESENT G. W.

Graham Fly represented the interfraternity association of George Washington University at the fourteenth annual interfraternity conference, held in New York, November 30. It had been planned for President Coolidge to be present and deliver an address.

"It would be a great pleasure to me to be present," he wrote, "but to my regret conditions of public business render an absence from Washington at this time impossible. It will be a favor to me if you will extend my greetings and the assurance of my hope that at some future time, I will be able to meet some similar convention." The President is a member of Phi Gamma Delta at Amherst College.

PI PHI HOLD TEA DANCE

Pi Phi held their annual Thanksgiving Day tea dance at the Powhatan Hotel, November 29th.

The hall was at all times crowded, those who attended the football game in the afternoon, later attended the dance.

Hodgkins Active at G. W. Forty Years

Has Served Institution in Capacity of Professor, Dean, and President For Forty-one Years.

Dr. Howard Lincoln Hodgkins, who has been a professor in George Washington for forty years, acted in the capacity of president of the University from 1921 until 1923, when President Lewis assumed that office. Dr. Hodgkins was then appointed to the newly-created office of Dean of the University.

Dean Hodgkins has been connected with the University since the beginning of his college career. He was born in Elgin, Illinois, January 23, 1862, and came to Washington in 1875. He was here at the inauguration of General Grant, and took part in the Inaugural Parade after the ceremonies.

After coming to Washington Dean Hodgkins entered Columbian College, and in 1883 received the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts from George Washington, which was known at that time as Columbian University. Nine years later he was awarded a degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Mathematics and Physics. In 1921 he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Science.

In 1883, the year of his graduation, Dean Hodgkins was enrolled as a tutor in Columbian College. He has been an instructor in the University continuously since that time. In 1897 he was appointed Dean of the Corcoran Scientific School of Columbian University, which was later changed to the College of Engineering. He served in this position until 1903, resuming it again in 1905, and served as Dean of the College of Engineering until 1913. In that year he was elected Dean of the Department of Arts and Sciences, where he served until

CHEER LEADERS ELECTED

Baxter Smith, Alvin G. McNish, and Jonathan E. Wood were elected cheer leaders by the student council at its last meeting, November 20.

Upon recommendation of W. R. Stokes, coach of the Rifle Team, a motion was passed to award the Women's Rifle Team of last year major G. W. letters for special merit shown. Motion passed by council to require persons seeking positions as managers or assistant managers of athletic teams to be present at the student council meeting in the future and make their application for the position sought orally and in person.

KAPPA SIGMA CELEBRATES

FOOTBALL HOP TO BE BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Meyer Davis' Best to Furnish Music for Party

LETTERS AWARDED TEAM

McPherson Announces That Dance Will Be Informal—Features Will Be Assured

The Football Hop, the fourth annual dance in honor of the Buff and Blue football team, will be held this year at Raucher's, Friday night, December 7, from 10 p. m. until 2 a. m. This party is the opening of the G. W. social season, and plans have been made to have it an affair worthy of the prestige of the University.

The music for the affair will be furnished by nine piece—count them if you will—of Meyer Davis' very best. At 1 o'clock it is whispered that perfectly pure punch will be served during a short intermission.

The object of this intermission will be to present the letter and sweaters to the team. This ceremony will be short and peppy. The chairman of the athletic committee of the student council will make the actual presentation. It has been promised that there will be no long speeches.

The sale of tickets is well under way. The admission price is only $3.50. As only a certain number of the tickets will be sold it is advisable to get them as soon as possible. The admission will be limited to 250.

Tickets are now available at the treasurer's office, 2033 G Street, at the intersection of the Law School, and at the Medical School.

Richard McPherson, chairman of the committee on arrangements, urges that the students get tickets at once. "If you don't," he admonishes the student body, "you will stand small chance of getting one. Then, how would you explain it all to your femme, who has been counting the hours. President Lewis will be the guest of honor, the rest of the faculty will be there, the lucky 250 of the student body, and an invitation has been sent to Charles Ray to lend the sunshine of his smile. Tickets are cheap, but YOURS may be sold."

The committee on arrangements announces that in deference to wishes of the football team, the dance will be informal. Showers of multi-colored confetti will add materially to the gaiety of the occasion.

Everything possible has been done to make this affair the most brilliant one of its kind ever held at the University.

SOPH SOCIETY ORGANIZED TO ENCOURAGE SPIRIT

Tradition to Be Handed Down to Soph Class of Next Year

The Ball and Chain Society of George Washington University is now in existence. It has a charter, which is approved by the student council, with the names of the charter members inscribed on it. The society is for the purpose of instilling into the Freshmen the traditions that former classes of the University have given the school, and also that future classes will make.

It was organized by Frank Clements, president of the Sophomore Class. As yet, no officers have been elected, but probably there will be an election held about two weeks before Christmas. The members are all members of the Sophomore Class.

The charter is to be handed down by this year's Sophomore Class to the Sophomore Class of next year, who will also affix their names to it. This is expected to be repeated from year to year, and to prove a great help in improving school spirit.

ALPHA DELTA PI DANCE

Alpha Delta Pi sorority held its second formal dance of the season, Saturday, December 1, at the S. A. E. fraternity house on 16th Street.

Besides the sorority girls and their escorts, there were many guests present.

"DO UNTO OTHERS"

Do you show yourself grateful to your friends who support and are interested in you? Would you be unwilling to show them you appreciate their encouragement, if, to do so, would not cost you the turn of a hand or the outlay of a nickel?

Here's the proposition: The success of student activities depends upon the wellbeing of the component parts. The University Hatchet is a vital unit. But its life or death rests upon the willingness of Washington merchants to use it for advertising. If business men procure trade from the student body, they continue and add to such advertising. They may recommend the paper to others as a lucrative display medium. But such action hinges on your appreciation of the interest they take in you and in the University. You are often in need of text books. Buy them from the book store which hands over money to our advertising solicitors. Where did you get your new fall coat? Was it at the clothing store which used space in the Hatchet? Eat at the restaurants which tell about their pumpkin pies and roast pork in the University journal. Hold your dances and parties at the halls that bid for your patronage in the college publication. If you are ever out of anything, scan the "ads in the Hatchet" to ascertain whether you can not buy it from a friend of the institution. In handing over your money to him, don't forget the most important part of saying you saw his "ad" in The University Hatchet.

If you will pursue this easy and reasonable policy, the University journal will benefit and prosper. That it can stand on its own feet, will strengthen the University. This reinforcement will be an inseparable part of the program for a "greater George Washington."

ORCHESTRA BOOKS DATES

The Freshman Orchestra is now booking dates for the winter season. The aid of the student body of George Washington University is asked in the procuring of these engagements. The orchestra has already shown that they are for G. W. first, and they should be helped by the people of the University in their efforts.

Mias Neverstop, seating herself between two much-engrossed elderly men, exclaimed: "A rose between two thorns."
"No, madam," retorted one, "say rather a tongue sandwich."

INTRODUCING
Medical School.

Back again.
They may be lowly Freshmen, but we'll give them a chance. Look: "Psychology" Moss, Pres.; "Jerry" Reich, Vice-Pres.; "Bernie" Kahn, Bankrupt; "Tennis" Chickering, Scratch-er; and "Skinny Shanner," Hillman Cop.

Ever see Paul Portion's knees? Are they mad at each other?

Wonder what book "Swede" Jansen is thinking of writing. If he doesn't stop asking "Rube Goldberg" questions we Sophs will have to award him one of the Pawnbroker's Balls. Eh?

We knew if Joe Larkin played around Malock he'd get infected. How does it feel, Joe?

Don Johnson better teach his hands to behave. You know, Don.

From now on "Walt" Nelson wants lights—doesn't care if it's in the parlor, either—Yes, sir. Why? Just look at his forehead. Whose teeth, Walt?

"Dot" Hotel claims her rosy complexion has nothing to do with her new course in Pharmacy. Maybe some folks say.

Is "Red" Newman thrifty? Oh, boy, just look at his combination nightgown and top coat.

The Freshmen ask Naviasser to please stop competing with the bones and cadavers. Leave that Salami lunch home.

Hats? Didja see the "Iron Kelly" Joe Giovino is sporting? Presented to him by a clinic patient—at the lunatic asylum.

Steer clear of Marie O'Dea, boys. She's trying to sell tickets for a dance—watch out, fellows.

The thriller of a Century. Freshmen rivals for seat next to girl classmate. Unintentionally shoved her off the bench. Too bad, Cart.

Ha, Ha. Losing your teeth? That's nothing—ask Dr. Follett.

The Conductors don't mind "Sheik" Evans becoming acquainted with passengers, but that's no excuse for trying to get away with your fare.

If things keep on as is, we'll need a traffic cop soon. Some awful collisions between the boys in a hurry to follow the Brown Line in and those trying to follow it out.

Wonder what "Frosh" Schwartz wants?

It's no use. They will break out. Would you ever imagine Hy Harberg going to a party? Of course he told some Anatomy at the racket—but give him a chance.

Some hullabaloo. Frankie Suraci chased a kid all over F Street trying to get the kid to allow him the use his new shiny Stethoscope cause his latest girl was passing by.

Born in Paris, son of a wealthy tradesman. As a student won

Founder of modern chemistry.

"The Republic has no need for savants," sneered a tool of Robespierre as he sent Lavoisier, founder of modern chemistry, to the guillotine. A century later the French Government collected all the scientific studies of this great citizen of Paris and published them, that the record of his researches might be preserved for all time.

Lavoisier showed the errors of the theory of phlogiston—that hypothetical, material substance which was believed to be an element of all combustible compounds and to produce fire when liberated. He proved fire to be the union of other elements with a gas which he named oxygen.

Lavoisier's work goes on. In the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company the determination of the effects of atmospheric air on lamp filaments, on metals and on delicate instruments is possible because of the discoveries of Lavoisier and his contemporaries.

G. W. HOPES TO OBTAIN PART OF WASHINGTON ELM

George Washington University, through the efforts of President William Mather Lewis, is making every effort to obtain a piece of the famous Washington Elm, in Cambridge, Mass., which lately fell and is being turned over to the park commission for distribution.

The historic tree, under which General Washington took over the command of the American Army, is to be cut up and distributed. President Lewis has put in a claim to Mayor Quinn for a piece of the tree for the University. The Cambridge mayor has replied that the reasonable request has been turned over to the park commissioners with the idea that the request would be given consideration.

COUNTY FAIR SUCCESSFUL

The Y. W. C. A. County Fair proved to be a howling success, despite the weather. Approximately $100 was cleared.

A contest was carried on to determine the various qualities of the professors. The prizes were green caps. Professor Morse was voted the hardest, Professor Henning the easiest, Professor Hankin the handsomest, Professor Griggs, most popular.

Miss Kincannon won a very pretty pillow at a game of chance and Marguerite Daly a fountain pen.

Choice of a Career

From the Yale News

THE NINETY-FOUR

Someone, probably an insurance agent, was quoted recently as saying that from the mass of one hundred college graduates one individual only rose to the Polo and butler class, perilously near the top of the financial ladder. Five others became comfortably off and found themselves after twenty years at the small yacht and chauffeur stage. The other ninety-four presumably congregate in the great section of the American people who drive their own Buicks to the golf club. In other words, dreaming about being a rich man is one thing, and making the grade is "something else again."

Yet the ninety-four presumably work just as hard as the sumptuous six. Their business is the axis on which a small and uninteresting world revolves. They have become devotees of the dollar and when that fickle deity deserts, have nowhere else to turn. Jammed in a dull, straight rut of business they can never leave the road and jump the fence into finer fields of life. This, then, is the portion of ninety-four men out of every hundred now on the campus.

The answer to the problem lies in the proper choice of a career.

Between now and Commencement we shall have something to offer on the subject of "Careers." Watch for the space with the Famous Signature.

should be the best.

Underwood

SPEED—ACCURACY—DURABILITY

Thus you get full value for your money. Why is the UNDERWOOD the best machine? Because all champion typists tested it out and they all agree—they all use it. When you RENT a typewriter, get an UNDERWOOD.

A TYPEWRITTEN exam, thesis, or theme has many advantages. It is easy to read, and makes a good impression; it is usually more fluent and more accurate, and it saves time. Use a Remington Portable for all your writing.

This sturdy, little machine is compact, convenient, and complete, with the regulation four-row keyboard like the big machines, and other "big machine" features. It can be operated on your lap, if you wish, for it carries its table on its back.

Price, complete with case, $60. Easy payment terms if desired

SANFORD'S FOUNTAIN PEN INK

"The Ink That Made
The Fountain Pen Possible"

MANY men at college have such definite ideas about their clothes that the smallest detail out of harmony with propriety condemns the suit.

Dunshire Clothes have been designed to meet their requirements. Each minute detail of cut, every fabric pattern coincides precisely with their established standards of conservative good taste in apparel.

A Dunshire suit is a distinctive type among college men; its high vest; soft, rolling lapels and easy, English drape are always correct.

We will be glad to show you these distinctive clothes. You know the suit!
